Gender sensitivity helps to generate respect for all the individuals. The objective is to ensure that everyone has access to a full range of opportunities to achieve the social, psychological and physical benefits that come from participating and leading in co-curricular and extracurricular activities. College conducts event through various committees of students like cultural, sports, NSS, alumni association where equal opportunity is given to boys and girls.

College provides different safety and security facilities in the campus. College corridors, library and office premises are under CCTV vigilance. There are different committees like Anti Ragging Committee, Grievances Redressal Committee, Internal Complaints Committee which help the students to resolve their issues. Emergency telephone numbers of members of these committees and police are displayed prominently in the premises and printed in the practical record books. Each class has female and male class representative to coordinate between teachers and students. College has 24 hrs security guards in the campus to keep check on trespassers. Entry is allowed inside the campus against valid identity cards. Lady staff members also accompany the students during educational tours, industrial visits, NSS camp, field trips to ensure safety and security of female students. Students also participated in the Red Ribbon Run, Run to beat the cancer 2K17, Blood Donation camp, World Pharmacist Day celebrations, Awareness of the Health and Hygiene, Blood Group Testing Camps, Street cause 2K18.

We have mentor system to understand and solve students' issues. Each staff member is assigned as mentor for fixed number of students. Monthly meetings are conducted to counsel the mentees. The objective of personal counselling is to understand the issues which a student may hesitate to speak communally.

College has separate common rooms for boys and girls with required facilities like lockers, sitting arrangement, attached washroom etc. There is a sick room for the students in case of medical discomfort.

College has also undertaken various initiatives for gender equity. A gender championship committee has been formed. To promote the awareness of gender equity, college regularly organizes various competitions like rangoli and painting, etc with related themes. Student welfare department organizes various programs related to women health and welfare like yoga sessions and lectures, self defence training, haemoglobin check-up etc. Film festivals and interactions are arranged related to gender equity.

Every year NSS unit organizes a special camp of seven days in the adopted village where students interact with villagers. Special programs are organized for village women like folk singing, health survey and health checkup. Local speakers are invited to talk on topics related to women empowerment and gender equality. Local students showing good performance in their academics and extracurricular activities are felicitated by NSS unit to appreciate and promote their efforts. A street rally was organized in the village where posters of gender equality and slogans were utilized in effective way.

These are some ways through which the institute shows gender sensitivity by providing necessary facilities and undertaking appropriate initiatives and sensitization programmes
