5.3.2. Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

Students are considered major stakeholder in the institutional growth because they are the primary beneficiaries of the educational system. Utilization of the support and ideas of the students is the most important requirement for the prosperity and well-being of the institute.

Sree Dattha always strives to build a relation of mutual respect and inculcate a sense of pride amongst the students for their own institute. Students take active participation by representing themselves in various academic, administrative bodies, co- curricular and extracurricular committees of the institute. Students organize and celebrate various academic, sports and cultural events. The active participation of the students in the above cited activities enhances their communication skills, management skills, leadership skills, teamwork, time management, delegation of work and resource management ability and boosts their confidence levels.
